

Greetings from the Vietnam
Friendship
Village at the World
Peace
Forum

The Vietnam Friendship Village Project
Invites you to participate in a day of events at the World Peace Forum – Tuesday, June 27, 2006 at the University of British Columbia,
Room: Buchanan A202 from 9am – 5:30pm.
(See reverse for details.)

Then join us for the Vietnam Friendship Village Project Fundraiser Feast...

Come meet our guests from around the world!
Enjoy great music, a wonderful Afghan buffet, and engaging conversation at a public reception for the International Committee of the Vietnam Friendship Village Project.
Where: Chai Restaurant, 3243 West Broadway, Vancouver
When: 7-10 pm Cost: $25

For more information, email friendshipvillage@shaw.ca or phone (604) 254-3544.

Please visit www.vietnamfriendship.org www.worldpeaceforum.ca

9:00-12:00 The Vietnam Friendship Village: A Project that could change the World An award-winning film and multinational panel on the Vietnam Friendship Village, a living symbol of reconciliation that treats children and veterans afflicted by Agent Orange.

13:00-14:30 Where the Killing Stops: Soldiers turned Peacemakers A forum of soldiers who have refused to fight, including veterans from WWII to the Iraq War, explain why their call for peace is the most difficult to ignore.

14:30-16:00 A Refuge from Militarism? The Canadian Tradition of supporting American War Resisters Unlike 1960s draft-dodgers, American soldiers seeking sanctuary in Canada from the Iraq War are stuck in legal limbo. They call on Canada to honor its Vietnam-era legacy.

16:00-17:30 Drafting Legionaries for Pax Americana: Understanding and Confronting U.S. Military Recruitment "Counter-Recruitment" activists explain how they work against the recruiter fraud, jingoism, and "poverty draft" that entice young Americans into joining the U.S. Armed Forces.

Afternoon panels co-sponsored by the
War Resister Support Campaign: www.resisters.ca

Printing provided by Hatfield Consultants Ltd.
www.hatfieldgroup.com

The Vietnam Friendship Village Project gives caring citizens of the world an opportunity for reconciliation and friendship with Vietnamese children and veterans afflicted by Agent Orange. For more information, please visit www.vietnamfriendship.org

Place
Stamp
Here

to:

9:00-12:00 The Vietnam Friendship Village: A Project that could change the World An award-winning film and multinational panel on the Vietnam Friendship Village, a living symbol of reconciliation that treats children and veterans afflicted by Agent Orange.

13:00-14:30 Where the Killing Stops: Soldiers turned Peacemakers A forum of soldiers who have refused to fight, including veterans from WWII to the Iraq War, explain why their call for peace is the most difficult to ignore.

14:30-16:00 A Refuge from Militarism? The Canadian Tradition of supporting American War Resisters Unlike 1960s draft-dodgers, American soldiers seeking sanctuary in Canada from the Iraq War are stuck in legal limbo. They call on Canada to honor its Vietnam-era legacy.

16:00-17:30 Drafting Legionaries for Pax Americana: Understanding and Confronting U.S. Military Recruitment "Counter-Recruitment" activists explain how they work against the recruiter fraud, jingoism, and "poverty draft" that entice young Americans into joining the U.S. Armed Forces.

Afternoon panels co-sponsored by the
War Resister Support Campaign: www.resisters.ca

Printing provided by Hatfield Consultants Ltd.
www.hatfieldgroup.com

The Vietnam Friendship Village Project gives caring citizens of the world an opportunity for reconciliation and friendship with Vietnamese children and veterans afflicted by Agent Orange. For more information, please visit www.vietnamfriendship.org

Place
Stamp
Here

to:
